CHAUTAUQUA IS DRAWING CROWDS

Splendid Programs Every Day—Many People From East Texas.

(By Mrs. W. S. Thilton.)

Cloudcroft, N. M., Aug. 24.—Mrs. Lella T. Moore had the paper of the afternoon, yesterday, at the chautauqua. It was a beautiful paper, beautifully given. It was at the suggestion of Herbert Spencer, who visited the public schools of his tour of the United States, that art and music were first included in the curriculum. Mrs. Moore said it is not the aim of the public schools to make public singers or musicians of the girls and boys; it is not to prepare them to make a living, by music, but to prepare them to live.

The next speaker was Prof. J. E. Clarke, territorial superintendent of public instruction, who was listened to with deep interest by the teachers in attendance. Prof. Clarke, who is an able speaker, touched on the state constitution and said that New Mexico should have the very best constitution ever framed, as she is the last to be admitted to the union and has the benefit of all the other state constitutions to profit by.

Miss Rosa Stolaroff furnished the music for the afternoon.
The subject of the evening session was "Lohengrin," but, much to the disappointment of the audience, the speaker, the Rev. John H. Doran, of Alamogordo, spoke on "Man, His Weaknesses, His Achievements and His Divinity."

R. R. Larkin, of Las Vegas, who has a voice of magnificent volume, gave several bass solos and Mrs. Lella Moore charmed all with her rendition of three numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Ansley and two sons, Will and John, who have been here for six weeks, left for their home in Houston. Mr. Ansley is a cotton broker, and owns a beautiful summer home on the Galveston beach, but so charmed were the family with Cloudcroft that they bought a place here next to the Harry Wood cottage.

Mrs. F. F. Darbershire and daughter, Margaret, who have been sojourning in Cloudcroft for several weeks, returned to El Paso on yesterday's train.

Mrs. W. H. Lorez, Miss Hattie May Lorez and Miss Cleo Patterson returned to El Paso yesterday after a delightful visit at the Croft.

Miss D. Tredway and Miss Betty Merrinether, who have been the house guests for several weeks of the Edgys at "Rift Point Lodge," returned to their home in St. Louis yesterday.

Prof. J. E. Clarke, of Santa Fe, state superintendent of public instruction, came in on yesterday's train and was given an ovation at the station by the "James Canyon quartet," by singing "New Mexico," an original song.

Dr. Gilbert, of Alamogordo, who chaperoned his three sisters-in-law for several days on the Roof Garden, returned with his charming guests yesterday. They were the Misses Janie, Francis and Sammie Murphy.

Eastern Texas people are flocking into Cloudcroft to escape the extreme heat they have there in August and September. Several families from Houston have come in to remain the rest of the season. Among them were Mrs. E. M. Haralson, Mrs. L. T. Noyes, Mrs. Kirkland and family and maid; also Mrs. M. A. Waggonman and three daughters, Misses Louise, Adele and Camille.

J. T. LaPrade, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. A. Leurs, and J. W. Milam are also registered at the Lodge from Houston, while Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Allen are the latest bridal couple at the Lodge. They are also from Houston and from the scraps of white ribbon still sticking to their luggage, and the showers of rice that keep falling from their umbrellas and hats, they must be very popular socially.

Those registered at the Lodge are: Frank Zeigler, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. T. A. Muirhead, Tucumcari; Miss Janie Murphy, Miss Francis Murphy, Miss Sammie Murphy, Alamogordo; R. R. Larkin, Las Vegas; R. T. White, El Paso; Miss Maud White, Miss Marvin Doolittle, El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis, Houston, Tex.; Charles Levine, El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Allen, Hazel Cummins and brother, Houston, Tex.; E. C. MacGregor, El Paso; J. V. Milam, Mrs. L. T. Noyes, Houston, Tex.; J. J. Barden, Bungalow, N. C.; Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Guder and family, Alamogordo; Ernie Faulkner, San Antonio; Clarence Carpenter, El Paso; H. M. Slaughter, Mary S. Slaughter, John C. Slaughter, New Orleans, La.; W. H. Tuttle, El Paso; H. D. Simms, E. M. Carter, Galveston; Lucile M. Notable, El Paso; Stevens, Terrell, El Paso; Garvie, Nettie C. Garvie, Chicago; Charles O'Galen, El Paso; Mrs. M. A. Waggonman, Louise Waggonman, Adele Waggonman, Camille Waggonman, Mrs. E. M. Haralson, Houston; Frank H. Rice, Oklahoma City; D. E. Cowen, El Paso; J. T. LaPrade, Houston; J. H. Squires, Oregando; Miss J. McNulty, El Paso; Clyde C. Buckingham and wife, Houston; Dr. Late Canelago, Alamogordo; R. H. Barnes and daughter, Dallas; J. H. Doran, Alamogordo; E. E. Clarke, Santa Fe; Miss Helen Oldham, El Paso; Miss Charlie M. Noble, Ft. Worth.

For Rent In New Herald Building

Janitor service is furnished together with all the incidental requirements that help to make an office building more comfortable than the ordinary office can be without these requisites.

LOCATION—located in the very heart of the business center where all street cars pass its doors, well advertised, large signs on all sides of the building, and immense electric signs on tower show day and night where The Herald Building can be found. This one feature is worth money to any business man, to be in a building that can be located without the assistance of a city directory and one or two policemen.

REMEMBER, while you know where your office is located, strangers and others must find it. Therefore it is good policy to be where you can be found when people want to do business with you. Now-a-days the average person will not hunt long, he will do business elsewhere.

BIG FIRE LOSSES SUFFERED AT DURAN

Flames Almost Wipe Out the New Mexican Town; Damage $7000.

Duran, N. M., Aug. 24.—A very destructive fire occurred in Duran causing an estimated loss of $7000, of which one-half is covered by insurance. The Duran Trust and Savings bank, City meat market, Mark Robinson rooming house, and a vacant store building being completely destroyed and Sanchez Bros. company slightly damaged, as the result of the blaze.

The fire apparently started in the City meat market building, and it and the adjoining buildings being of wood, were soon consumed, there being no time for the volunteer firemen to save any of the contents, and it was only by very heroic work that San-haz Bros. and company's building was saved, after tearing down a small frame structure by the side of the building.

The Sanchez building being of stone, the wind in a favorable direction, and fast work of volunteer firemen, is all that prevented this building from going with the rest. At one time the entire town was threatened, and it was very fortunate that the wind was low and from the east.

The estimated losses and insurance follows: Duran Trust and Savings bank loss $3000, insurance $2000, their vault is in apparent good condition; City meat market, owned by Roy Spodgrass, loss $1500, insurance $900; Mark Robinson, household furniture, $300, no insurance; R. A. Doss, owner of building, occupied by M. Robinson, $900, no insurance; W. E. Jeffries, store building, $1000, no insurance; Sanchez Bros. and company, damage to goods in removing $300.

The Duran Trust and Savings bank opened its vault yesterday afternoon in the presence of the president, H. B. Jones, of Tucumcari; cashier H. S.

speaking at the courthouse in Tucumcari, Wednesday, August 24.

Charles Kohn and W. C. Harkins, both of Montoya, are in the city on business.

Mrs. J. B. Neely, wife of the Blue Ribbon baker, is sick at her home on South Adams street.

Hoa. H. L. Boone has gone for a two weeks' visit to his old home at Yachina, Ill. He will return in time to assist in the elections.

Mrs. F. M. Kempin, wife of the foreman at the E. P. & S. W. railway shops, is improving from a severe illness.

Holloway, and a large crowd of onlookers, and everything was found in perfect condition.

Cashier Holloway had a narrow escape during the fire. He entered the front of the building in an effort to save his adding machine, and about the same time someone broke open the back door, creating a draft which almost overcame him before he could get out. The bank has secured temporary quarters and will conduct business as usual, and will erect a modern fire proof building to take the place of the wooden structure destroyed. The only effects saved were cashier Holloway's typewriter and office chair.
